

Bio - VCSB

Genevieve “Gin” Chandler is an accounting supervisor for the City of Staunton. She is a seasoned professional with more than 25 years of financial management and analytics experience. Genevieve has a diverse background in accounting, fundraising, and software management and implementation. The majority of her career has been spent in PK-12 and higher education environments and local government.

Genevieve holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from Mary Baldwin University and a Master of Public Administration in Business and Government from Liberty University. She resides in Staunton with her husband, Clay and their two beloved dogs – Remy and Cooper. Genevieve and Clay share four children and one beautiful granddaughter, Jolene.